

Voting Guide

Grayson County Conservatives board spends countless hours researching candidates by checking voting records, questionnaires, in-person interviews, and collecting data to make our decisions. Then as a board, we discuss our findings and make our decisions.

Endorsements: When our board believes a candidate fully embodies our conservative values and will represent those values within the office they are seeking.

Recommendations: THESE ARE NOT ENDORSEMENTS. There are times when candidates do not live up to the high standards of a GCC endorsement. We do our research and choose the best we can with a recommendation.

No Recommendation: In some cases, candidates did not respond and in other cases, no clear differentiation was apparent in the candidates.

Unopposed: If a candidate runs unopposed, they are not included on this voter guide. However, we strongly suggest not voting (leaving it blank) for an unopposed candidate in the primaries if they aren't living up to conservative ideas. A vote for an unopposed candidate is a message you approve of their actions/work in their given position. You do not have to worry about a democrat taking this position because there will be a general election in November.

Governor: Any Republican but Abbott. We endorse the 3 candidates below. We feel these three candidates would do a great job and could easily beat any democrat in the in the general election this November. Our board voted as follows...

Huffines 4 * Prather 2 * West 1

Lt Governor

Endorsed: Daniel Miller

Atty General

Endorsed: Louie Gohmert

This is not an anti-Paxton vote. The GCC board believes Louie is the best choice to confront rapidly rising government overreach, in Texas and beyond.

Texas Ag Commissioner

Endorsed: Sid Miller

Tx Comptroller

Recommended: Glenn Hegar

Land Commissioner

Recommended: Victor Avila

Railroad Commissioner

Recommended: Wayne Christian

Texas Supreme court at law Place 9

Recommended: David Schenck

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals Place 5

Recommended: Clint Morgan

This is our chance to correct the election of incumbent Scott Walker, who won simply because he has the name of a famous person.

County Commissioner Precinct 2

Recommended: E.V. Harlan

In GCC's vetting process EV stood apart from his opponents on his strong commitment to private property rights. With Grayson County quickly developing, this subject is important for our citizens.
